STAYING CONNECTED

WORSHIP ONLINE INSTRUCTIONS: We continue to worship online this week. Sermons can be found on YouTube and on Facebook. You do not need an account to view (you just won't be able to comment). On Facebook, go to the Videos section and you'll find lists of sermons and check-in. For FB users feel free to comment and share. On YouTube, the most recent videos appear first. Be sure to join us again this Sunday at 9:30am for a live-stream or both Traditional and Contemporary services.

LENTEN BLOG "GROWING SEASON": Keep the cabin fever at bay by keeping your mind busy. With everything that's going on, sometimes it's hard to remember we're in the middle of Lent and Easter is coming. Pass the time by focusing on the season and follow our blog: <http://www.fcctyler.org/growingseason>. We delve into the big ideas and deep practices of Lent. We look forward to your comments!

PHONE / EMAIL: We'd like to remain as connected as possible, even if we can't see you in person. If you need help, call us. The church office phone 903-561-8138, remains open Monday-Friday 8:30am-5pm. You can email anytime, firstchristian@fcctyler.org.

Remember, connect with others from our church family by phone, etc. Times like these can be isolating, so, when in doubt, call a friend!

SUPPORTING YOUR FCC FAMILY FROM AFAR

OFFERINGS ONLINE: Please keep up with your giving as you are able. Mail in your gift, visit our website, or sign up for auto-draft. Thank you for your support especially during this time. We are making efforts and plans to provide aid for not only our church family, but our community as well. Your generosity makes a difference!

GOOD NEIGHBORLY HELP: We have a growing list of helpers and families willing to do errands, odd jobs, groceries, etc. for people in need. We could always use more volunteers to help a neighbor in need.
